Job offer Scholarship in a research project

Requirements:

We are looking for candidates interested in joining the team. We intend to hire a part-time research assistant (the work load for each is about 20 hours a week) for MIRaReD project (Modelling Incomplete Rationality in Retirement Decisions). Position is in microeconometrics of individual level data using large datasets and multiple data sources (experience in working with data is a plus). Knowledge of English is a must. Prior experience with STATA or R constitute an advantage.

Job description:

The tasks of the assistant will include coding, data management, data analysis and review of literature as well as drafting components of scientific articles and non-technical posts for project blog. The project is financed by the National Science Center.

We offer a friendly yet stimulating work environment among other young people involved in research projects, moreover we offer a designated place to work with a well-equipped computer, printers and all the office supplies. There are frequent seminars that give opportunity to learn and share in cozy yet motivating atmosphere. Last but not least, there is access to a fully-equipped kitchen and free yet wonderful coffee. The assistant will have the access to the databases acquired for the projects. Each of the project will yield 2-3 journal articles, some of which may be co-authored by the assistant, depending on the work input.

The assistant will also be able to use the facilities for work not directly related to the project. The working hours are rather flexible and task-oriented. However, the assistant is required to meet with the project team on a regular basis. Inclusion of parts of the research performed by the assistant in his/her PhD/MA thesis is also possible.

We can offer a scholarship ("stypendium"). The compensation amounts gross to 1800 PLN for one part-time position per month. The expected contract duration will be between 2 up to 3 years (depending on the project), but it may also be extended, subject to successful cooperation and obtaining new projects.
